CORAM; A.M.KHANWILKAR J.

DATED l9.l.2006

P.C.

l. Heard the learned counsel for the parties. I see no reason to depart from the opinion expressed by the court below. The learned counsel for the appellants submits that the court may not record detailed reasons for disposing of the appeal, instead direct the trial court to dispose of the suit as expeditiously as possible in view of the nature of the controversy involved. I find force in this submission. In the circumstances the appeal is disposed of with a direction to the trial court to expedite the hearing of the suit to be decided preferably by the end of December 2006. The respondents through counsel assures that the respondents will extend full cooperation to the trial court for early disposal of the suit.

Civil application is also disposed of.
